

Mouth Lines

Facial fillers add volume to your mouth creases, while smoothing out the lines and reducing their appearance.

About

Injectable Facial fillers can be used to correct moderate to severe facial wrinkles and skin folds.

Causes

Mouth lines are caused by the repeated movement of the mouth as well as the gradual loss of fat and skin elasticity that occurs naturally with ageing.

Procedure | Injections

As with all medical procedures, there are risks involved with the use of facial fillers as a treatment for mouth lines and other facial wrinkles. That is why the certified practitioners here at Paramount Dental Sydney take the time to help you understand the limits of the facial filler treatments and as well as any risks. into your eyelid muscles, causing them to droop.

Cost | From $275 Per Area

Several factors can vary and increase the cost of treatment. Our team will advise you of these during your consultation.
